Sculptor Anne Kirby Rubin has created a set of relief panels for the Summer Festival that will span the Power Center's curved lobby wall. This piece represents the transformation of river sounds – bullfrogs calling, the soft sound of swimming animals, water gurgling over rocks, noises of night birds, – into form. She brings these sound-inspired forms together with visible elements found by the river to create a visual "symphony" of nature. Anne Rubin will discuss her sculptures in two Artist Talks, free and open to the public, on Tuesday, June 25 and Saturday, June 29, 7:00 p.m., in the Green Room at the Power Center.
